Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 25 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy overnight, with drizzle possible. Sunshine and heavy showers Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some fine evening sunshine, especially inland. However low cloud lingering along coastal parts, will thicken and become more extensive overnight, spreading westwards. This perhaps giving the odd spot of light rain or drizzle in places. Mild, with light winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Monday:
Murky start for most, but clearing to warm sunshine and light winds. This is likely to spark some slow-moving heavy downpours in places later, these perhaps turning thundery with hail. Maximum temperature 28 deg C (82 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Unsettled through this period, with showers and some longer spells of rain. Temperatures largely below average, in marked contrast to the week just gone.
